FOREWORD

The Student Body and the Faculty of Western Carolina Teachers College launch forth THE CAT-AMOUNT as a joyous work of hands and love of hearts. It is a symbol of the wholesome activities, genuine fellowship, and true college spirit of their Alma Mater. To those who leave the college, may it be an indelible record of pleasant memories of the happy days spent together and an awakening in all the everlasting spirit of Cullowhee.

Cullowhee — "a quiet nook where nature reserves a sanctuary for those who love and cherish her beauty"; a name that binds hundreds of kindred spirits together by the mystic bond of loyalty and by the mighty bond of love—love for each other and loyalty to the college.

DEDICATION

To H. T. Hunter, whose genuine interest in our college has been demonstrated during eleven years of unstinting service as President, whose progressive policies have been influential in expanding and extending our school, whose personal interest in our faculty and students has won our admiration and affection, we respectfully dedicate this 1934 issue of THE CATAMOUNT.

H. T. HUNTER

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Faithful, kind, and true.
Every son and every daughter
Offers praise to you.

CHORUS:

Hail to the dearest spot of all
Hail to Cullowhee!
Light and life and fond devotion
All we owe to thee.

SUE SINCLAIR
WEST ASHEVILLE, N. C.
(EROSOPHIAN)

Biltmore Junior College '31-'32; Vice President Buncombe County Club '32, President '33; President Erosophian Society '33; President Senior Class '33-'34; Literary Editor '34 CATAMOUNT; Alpha Phi Sigma; Debate Club.

Combine beauty with a friendly spirit and the result will be Sue. Studious, yet full of fun—she has won our admiration. She is a hard worker and as a result is conspicuous in all campus activities. Those who are lucky enough to have her friendship are sure of a true and dependable friend. We shall not soon forget Sue.

MARTIN L NESBITT
FAIRVIEW, N. C.
(COLUMBIAN)

Biltmore Junior College '31-'32; Vice President Senior Class '33-'34; President Buncombe County Club '32-'33; Chief Commencement Marshal '33; President Glee Club '32-'33; Football '32.

After knowing Martin we say, "things couldn't go without him." He is always cheerful and friendly; frequently going out of his way to help those who need his aid. He tackles all tasks with vigor, but never seems to have a worry; consequently, we feel no hesitancy in predicting for him a brilliant career.

LENA ALLISON
BREVARD, N. C.
(COLUMBIAN)

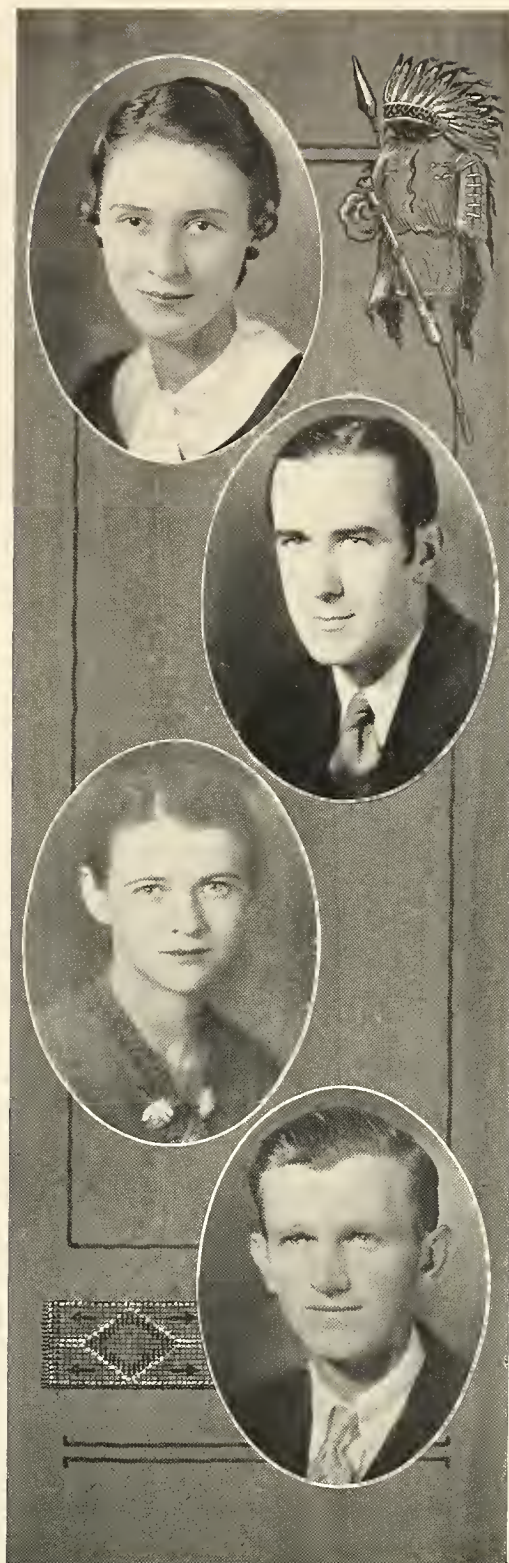

President B.Y.P.U. '30-'31-'32; Secretary-Treasurer Senior Class '33-'34; Cheer Leader '33-'34; Monogram Club; Basketball '30-'31; President Columbian Society '31-'32-'33, Vice-President '31-'32-'33; Senior Superlative; President S. S. Class '32-'33; Freshman Class Officer '30-'31.

A little girl with a lot of personality—that is Lena. With her constant friendliness and amiability, she could not be otherwise. Lena is never sad; she always wears a smile. She is noted for dry wit and has a joke for any occasion. Faithful, sincere, and kind; no wonder she is popular.

C. BRUCE HUNTER
DAY BOOK, N. C.
(EROSOPHIAN)

Maryville College '27-'29; Business Manager Western Carolinian '33-'34; Business Manager CATAMOUNT '33-'34; Advertising Manager '32-'33; President Erosophian Society '33, Vice-President '34; President Debate Club '33-'34; College Debator '33-'34.

One doesn't find real men like Bruce every day, everywhere. They just aren't made like him. Most of all, he is a real man, true, sincere, a good sport always. He has held practically every office the campus can offer. Whatever his life's work may be, we know that great accomplishments are inevitable.

MARGARET ASHTON

WAYNESVILLE, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

House Government Council '31-'32; Vice-President Music Club '30-'31; Officer S. S. Class '31-'32; Alpha Phi Sigma Treasurer '31-'32, President '32-'33; President Erosophian Society '32; President Dramatic Club '32; Literary Board '32.

Margaret's career in College has spelled success. She has the enviable qualities of an excellent student and an ideal pal. Her stand for fair play and quiet, good fellowship have earned for her the genuine friendship of all her classmates. For her we are forecasting a happy and successful future.

TILSON FLEETWOOD

MARS HILL, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Mars Hill College '31-'32; Society Officer '32-'33; Debate Club Officer '32-'33-'34; Varsity Debater '32-'33-'34; Baseball Squad '33-'34; President Journalism Club '33-'34; Vice-President Student Senate '33-'34; Basketball '33-'34; Attorney for Freshmen Boys '33-'34.

Here is one of our college leaders, who seems to know just how to bend other people's wills so that they conform to his. Politics is a natural inheritance and is a predominant factor in his life. He is a good debater and we know that he will make a good teacher. His achievements speak for themselves and for him.

DOROTHY BURLESON

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Her lazy voice and indifferent air cannot hide the precious and admirable qualities that her charming ways reveal to us. "Dot" is the kind of girl that makes a college a real place of activity. What will the college do without her next year?

CORNELIA ALICE GULLEY

CLAYTON, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

President Schubert Glee Club '33-'34.

Cornelia must possess the desirable quality of being able to see only the sunny side of life, for we never see her when she is not wearing a smile. But underneath this pleasant exterior, Cornelia has a reserve of poise and common sense. She makes friendships that are strong and lasting. Her genuine qualities of womanliness assure her success in life.

MARGARET BURGIN
WAYNESVILLE, N. C.
(EROSOPHIAN)

House Government President '31; House Government Council '32; Secretary Haywood County Club '31-'32; Schubert Glee Club '31-'32; Member B.S.U. Council '31-'32.

Serious and studious, yet taking an active part in various campus activities. In her presence, we usually feel an atmosphere of sincerity and dignity. However, when the time comes for fun, Margaret gets her share. She is a conscientious worker and a sincere friend.

OTTIS FREEMAN
CLYDE, N. C.
(COLUMBIAN)

Monogram Club '33-'34; Varsity Football '32-'33; Manager Baseball '33; President Methodist S. S. Class '33; Robertson House Government Council '33; Vice-President Columbian Society '33; Marshal '34; President Haywood County Club '33-'34.

Ottis, who is better known as Little Coach, is a real athlete, a letter man; he has won our hearts by his fine sportsmanship and his sensible creed of life. He has been a faithful, earnest member of our class, and he is always ready to do his duty. Success to Ottis!

DOROTHY NEAL
NASHVILLE, TENN.
(EROSOPHIAN)

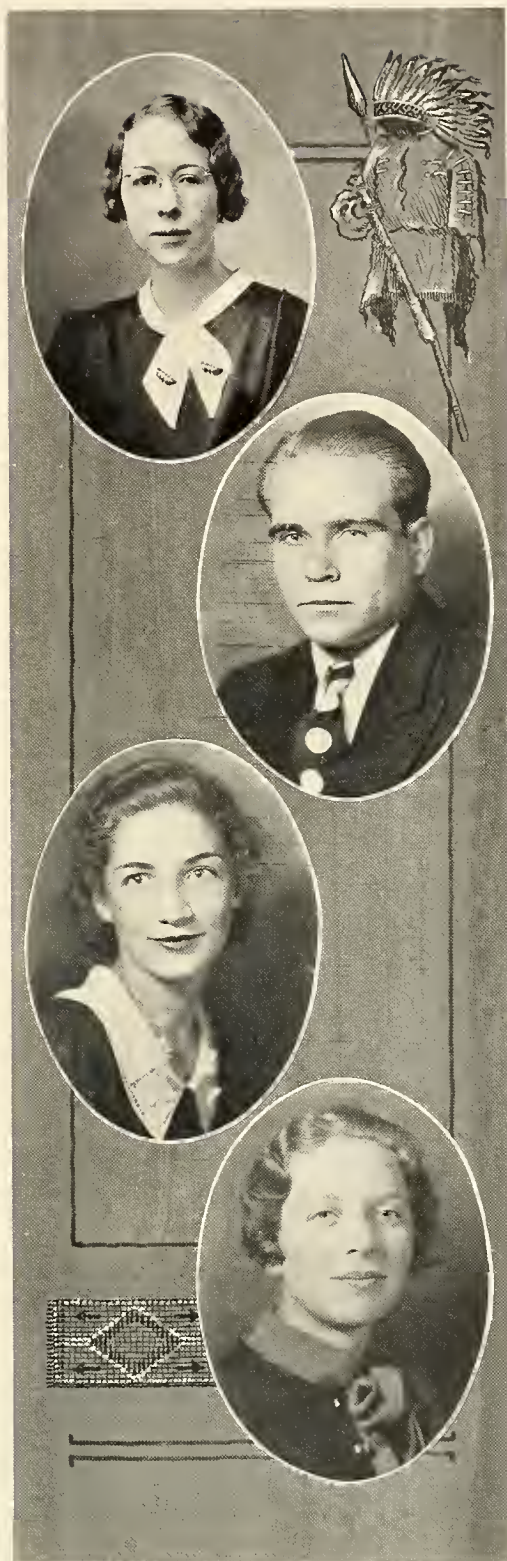

President House Government '32-'33; President Alpha Phi Sigma '33; Literary Club; Class Senator '33-'34; Alpha Phi Sigma.

Dorothy is a definitely distinctive girl. She is refreshingly laughter loving, gay and frank; a clever worker and altogether wonderful. She is a friendly girl of high ideals and splendid character and a friend never to be forgotten.

KATHERINE AMMONS
FRANKLIN, N. C.
(COLUMBIAN)

Officer B.Y.P.U. '34; Reporter Baptist S.S. Class; Member B.S.U. Council '34; Secretary Woman's House Government Association '34.

One of the sweetest and noblest girls on the campus. She carries her own burdens alone, but shares the burdens of others. It would be difficult to find a more sincere girl or ideal friend. With her courage, ambition, and high ideals, she is certain to succeed in whatever she undertakes.

BERNICE HUTCHINS

BURNSVILLE, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Weaver College '31-'32; Editor-in-Chief '34 CATAMOUNT; Member B.S.U. Council '33-'34; Columbian Society Officer '34; Baptist S.S. Officer '32-'33-'34; Senior Superlative; Journalism Club.

"Buzz," resourceful and attractive, is a jolly pal, a true friend, and a pleasant companion. Sincere, trustworthy, dependable, she is capable of doing well anything she is called upon to do. Ordinary adjectives are inadequate to describe her. She's unique—she's the one and only "Buzz."

HUBERT JUSTICE

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Weaver College '31-'32; Football '32-'33; Baseball '33-'34; President Robertson House Government Association '33-'34; Member B.S.U. Council '33-'34; Vice-President Baptist S. S. '34; Monogram Club; Vice-President Epworth League; Senior Superlative.

"Mule," as he is popularly called, can graduate with a feeling of work well done. He is the kind of boy who has convictions and stands by them. He finds pleasure in everything—life, work, studies, and social activities. If "Mule" continues to play the game of life as he does the game of football, he will make a success.

LEONA HARDIN

FOREST CITY, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Secretary Debate Club '33-'34; Varsity Debater '33-'34; Winner N. C. Intercollegiate Forensic Association Tournament '33; President of Epworth League '33; Columbian Society President '33; President of House Government Association '33-'34; President Methodist S.S. Class '33; Class Editor '34 CATAMOUNT.

Such are Leona's endowments in character and abilities that she will always be notably useful. She has a passion for service. Self-confidence and poise are hers. Strong in her convictions, she is nevertheless unbiased in judgment and pleasantly tolerant. She wins and holds respect, confidence and friendship.

PAUL LYDAY

WEST ASHEVILLE, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Mars Hill College '31-'32; President Erosophian Society '34; House Government Council '33-'34; Student Senate '33-'34; Tennis Team '33-'34; Interview Reporter Western Carolinian '33-'34; Wrestling Team '32-'33; President Tennis Club '33-'34; Senior Superlative.

If each person is a part of all he has met then Paul has met the best that life has to offer. He is studious, industrious, intelligent, and an all-round good fellow. As President of the Tennis Club he has done a great deal to further the interest of tennis on the camps. We feel sure that success will crown his efforts in everything he undertakes.

MILDRED DELLA KOOIMAN

GRAND HAVEN, MICH.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Editor-in-Chief Western Carolinian '33-'34; Senator '33-'34; Epworth League Vice-President '33, President '34; Journalism Club '33-'34.

Quiet and dignified, did you say? Maybe, sometimes. She is always overflowing with enthusiasm. Although she tries to conceal it, it usually manifests itself. Mildred has a determined and convincing manner. In her quiet and charming way, she is always "on the dot" to do what must be done. And whatever she attempts she does well; therefore, she is bound to succeed in life.

J. E. SIMPSON

BREVARD, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

President Epworth League '33; President Monogram Club '33-'34; Football '32-'33-'34; Baseball '32-'33.

"Simp," as he is affectionately known to all, is one person that one cannot help liking. His success in college has not been confined to the class room, for he has made an enviable record on the athletic field, and has won a host of friends by his friendly manner. We like "Simp" for what he is.

SARAH BROADWAY

MARSHVILLE, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Vice-President Schubert Glee Club '32-'33; Dramatic Club '32; Sunday School Officer '31; B.Y.P.U. Officer '33-'34.

There have been many romances written about Sarah. The heroine was probably not called by that name, but the person was the same. Sweet, beautiful, and adorable—the type of girl with whom men inevitably fall in love, and women love to know. Her sincerity enhances her other attractions and makes her a delightful companion.

WILSON LYDAY

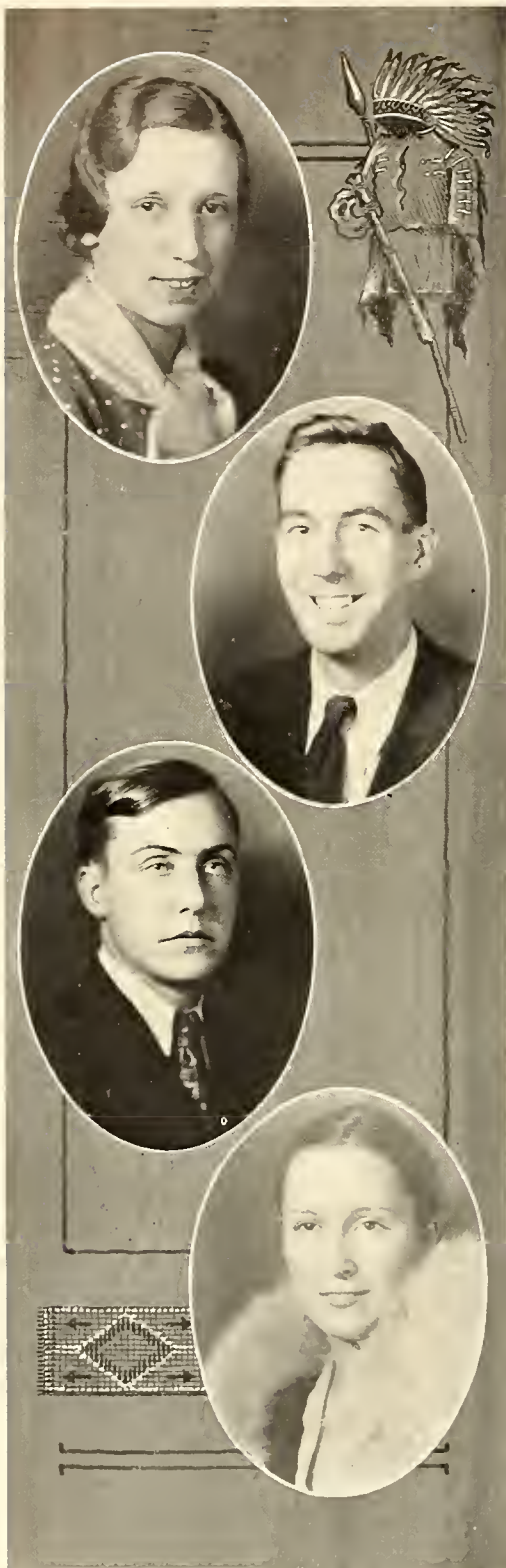

BREVARD, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Mars Hill College '31-'32; College Debater '33-'34; Football '32-'33-'34; Baseball '33-'34; President Columbian Literary Society '33-'34; Student Council '33-'34.

The spotlight of success is ever turned upon Wilson, whether it be in books or in campus activities. As a debater he is unequalled. His ability to think through a thing and then express his opinion is a trait adapted to him alone. He tackles all tasks with vigor but never seems to have a worry; consequently, we are predicting for him a brilliant future.

JULIA MERRELL

LEICESTER, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Mars Hill College '31-'32; Secretary Columbian Society '33; Vice-President Moore House Government Association '33-'34; Secretary B.Y.P.U. '32-'33, '33-'34; First Vice-President S.S. Class; Member B.S.U. Council; Senior Superlative.

A girl whose friendship is well-worth cultivating. One's first impression of Julia is that she is a quiet, gentle girl with an appealingly wistful expression and delightful, unpretentious manner. On better acquaintance, she rises in one's estimation because of her many good traits and genuine worth. Julia will live long in our memory.

KEMP TUNIS

BALTIMORE, MD.

(COLUMBIAN)

Weaver College '31-'32; Treasurer Columbian Society '32-'33; Superintendent Epworth League '32-'33; President Methodist S.S. Class '33-'34; Circulation Manager Western Carolinian '33-'34.

Kemp is a man of the highest type. His winning personality, cheerful disposition and unvarying courtesy have won for him many friends, among both faculty and students. He possesses not only those genuine qualities of manhood, but also all the virtues of a Christian gentleman. With his attitude toward life and his associates, he will surely make the world about him a better place in which to live.

A. C. MOSES

TUCKASEEGEE, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Alpha Phi Sigma; Jackson County Club.

Adam is strong and silent, but not as pessimistic as he would have us believe. His possibilities are great because of capacity, ability, and present attainments. Needless to say, we know he will be a success.

JESSIE HIGDON

HIGDONVILLE, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Basketball '30-'31; President Baptist S.S. Class '31-'32; Secretary Debate Club '32; Vice-President B.S.U. '32; Best College Student '32-'33; House Government Council '32; Alpha Phi Sigma; Vice-President House Government Association '32; President Student Body '32-'33.

Jessie's nobility of character speaks for itself. She is "peppy" and popular, sweet and congenial. Her loyalty to the school and her perseverance in the many tasks assigned to her cause us to wonder when she ever finds time to study. In her future career we hope that she may be as happy, efficient and successful as she is at present.

MARTHA LOU STILLWELL

CULLOWHEE, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Jackson County Club, President '30; Debate Club; General Director of B.Y.P.U. '30.

Martha Lou, you face life courageously; you live it well. You have something that inspires us to better things. It must be your sincerity, your kindness and your dependability. We are sure that you will always be welcomed wherever you go.

THOMAS RAY GIBBS

WHITTIER, N. C.

(COLUMBIAN)

Football '24-'25, Captain '25; Basketball '24-'25, Captain '24; Baseball '25-'26-'30, Captain '26; President Columbian Literary Society '25; President Student Council '24; Winner Declamation Contest '26; President Glee Club '26.

Ray is a progressive, conscientious, and punctual student. His records here bear testimony to this fact. He is athletic as well as studious. We do not envy his high grades, for we know he deserves them. If he is as dependable in the future as he has been in the past, his success is assured.

FLORA ANNA MORRISON

EAGLE SPRINGS, N. C.

Instructor of Penmanship '31-'32-'33-'34; President Presbyterian S.S. Class '32; Critic Erosophian Society; Secretary Schubert Glee Club '33; Dramatic Club.

Flora is the kind of girl that is always in the right place at the right time. In her quiet, easy manner she does her duty, makes friends, and enters into the wholesome activities of College. Flora is always cheerful and pleasant.

JAMES M. CRAWFORD

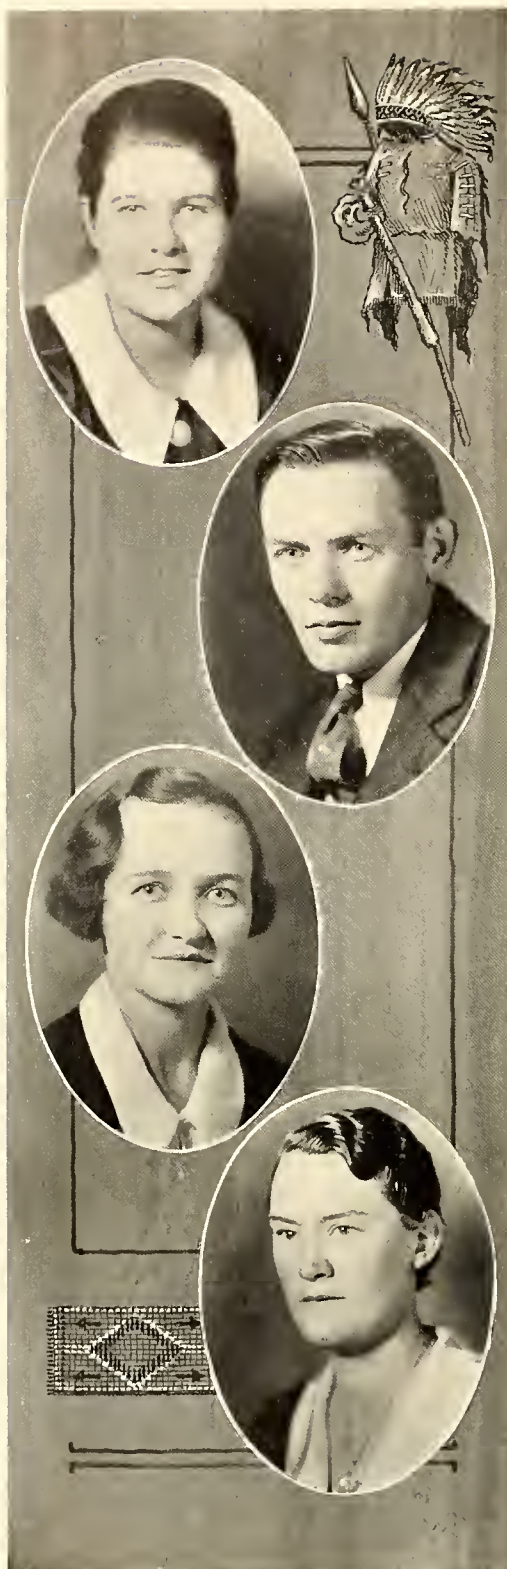

CANDLER, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

President Buncombe County Club '32-'33; President Debate Club '32-'33; President House Government Association '32-'33; Secretary Journalism Club '32-'33, President '33-'34; President Student Senate '33-'34; Western Carolinian Staff '32-'33; CATAMOUNT Staff '32-'33.

A man is judged by his works. During his stay here, Jim has made an enviable record for himself. In noting his intelligence and speaking ability, we feel sure that the future holds a high place for him in the profession of Law. He is a friend to everyone and is always ready to do his part. A versatile, influential, superior man—Jim.

JESSIE BROWN
MARS HILL, N. C.
(EROSOPHIAN)

Senior Superlative; Secretary B.S.U. Council '32-'33; First Vice-President '33-'34; President Baptist S.S. Class '32-'33-'34; Reporter to Western Carolinian '33; B.Y.P.U. Officer '32-'33.

Jessie is one of those rare personalities that love others better than they do themselves. Her life represents the things for which all of us strive but few attain. Jessie has a smile for all and she is a ready friend. She possesses many of the qualities that insure success.

BLAINE DENTON
ROBBINSVILLE, N. C.
(EROSOPHIAN)

Monogram Club; Football '31-'32-'33; Basketball '30; Secretary Smoky Mountain Club '33; Robertson House Government Council.

Blaine is a good fellow that we all admire. His sense of humor and good naturedness wins the admiration and respect of those he meets. We know that his tact and diplomacy will win him a place in the world.

ERMA ANDERSON
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.
(COLUMBIAN)

President Henderson County Club '33-'34; Journalism Club; Tennis Club.

Erma is always ready for a joke on somebody. She is always busy but is never seen studying. That's all right—she can cheer us up and make us feel good and that's quite an art. When we think of Erma, we will always think of a kind heart and a good friend.

WILLIE KATE JOHNSON
ATHENS, TENN.

Debate Club '33-'34; Varsity Debater '33-'34; Winner N. C. Intercollegiate Forensic Association Tournament '33.

Willie Kate is a true and loyal friend, one who believes that in order to have friends one must be a friend. She will make a success, for she will combine perseverance with ability. Days may be cloudy, but she will sail through them as the sun goes in and out among the clouds.

BERNETTA JERVIS

ALMOND, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

Swain County Club; Student Government Council '28; Alpha Phi Sigma; Debate Club.

Dependability is the adjective that has been created for her. Her ideals are imperishable, her poise admirable, and her loyalty and sincerity a source to which may be traced the interests and affection of all her classmates. Her memory will linger long with us.

MARGARET McCracken

CANTON, N. C.

(EROSOPHIAN)

B.S.U. Council '32-'33-'34; Journalism Club; Tennis Club; Y.W.A. Council.

"Mac" and "Mac's" smile are inseparable. One could never feel the least bit blue or homesick under the influence of her geniality. She takes with a smile what life gives her; and, in return, she gives everyone a square deal. She's just a combination of all those qualities that are essential to make an admirable and useful character.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM 1933-1934

The 1934 Girls' Basketball Team was one of the best in the history of the school. This was the second year under the coaching regime of Mr. Poindexter and the teams were much better than in previous years.

Outstanding games in the tough schedule were victories over Young Harris, Lenoir-Rhyne, a tie game with Lenoir-Rhyne, and a 30 to 31 defeat at the hands of the Appalachian sextet in one of the best games ever played on the Cullowhee court. Games lost were by close scores with the result always in doubt until the last whistle.

Players who did most of the playing were Brown, Tart, Whiteside, Blankenship, Smith, and Ballance, forwards; Bradley, Perry, Painter, Davis, and Boyd, guards. Brown was shifted to guard for the last two games, giving a combination of Blankenship, Tart and Whiteside, forwards; Bradley, Perry and Brown, guards.

During the season Coach Poindexter appointed a captain for each game and at the end the players selected Bradley honorary captain.

Games were played with Young Harris, Appalachian, Milligan, Piedmont, and Lenoir-Rhyne.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM 1933-1934

The 1934 Catamount Quintet played the toughest schedule in the history of the school. Twelve games were played with North State Conference teams and seven with Smoky Mountain Conference teams. In the North State Conference six games were won. Victories were registered over Appalachian, Atlantic Christian, High Point and Lenoir-Rhyne. Double victories were registered over the latter two.

The team was built around Woodard, Wilson and Miller, forwards; Barnwell and Cooke, centers; Fullbright, Sutton, Williams, Raper, and Ratcliff, guards. The Woodard-Wilson-Barnwell-Fullbright-Sutton combination usually got the call to start the game. At the close of the season the players honored Fullbright by electing him captain. During the season Coach Poindexter appointed a captain for each game.

Considering the tough schedule and all factors involved, the season was very successful and with practically all the players to return, prospects are bright for a championship team next year.

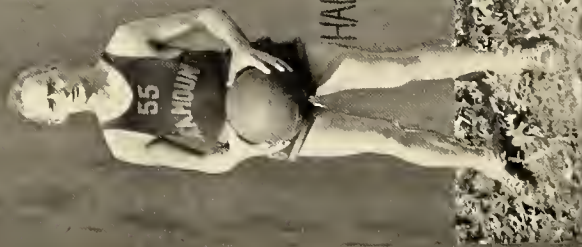

The schedule included games with Appalachian, Atlantic Christian, Elon, Guilford, High Point, Catawba, Lenoir-Rhyne, Tennessee Teachers, Maryville, Carson Newman, Piedmont and Hiwassee.

BASEBALL SQUAD

Since THE CATAMOUNT goes to press before the opening of the baseball season, we can only make an estimate as to the strength and success of the 1934 baseball team.

However, a large number of last year's lettermen are back, including Everett Simpson, pitcher, who has been signed up with Wilmington for the summer months, and Hubert Justice, the regular backstop. Other regulars back are Wilson Lyday and Alvin Sutton, infielders; Ralph Goforth, Darrell Mitchell, and James Nixon, outfielders. Other lettermen back who will see service this year are George Bristol and Herbert Angel.

New material which Coach Poindexter will have to draw from is Gordon Reno, Sam Bristol, Dan Pryor, Stinson Williams, John Crawford, Lawrence Leatherwood, Annell Holden, Needham Gower, and Francis Brown.

Miss Edgeworth (in class): "Who was the greatest English actor?"
Goforth: "Richard the Lion-Hearted."
Miss Edgeworth "Oh, no!"
Goforth: "Yes, he was; the book says he starred in the crusade and made a thousand Knights run."

Farmer: "Say, don't you see that sign; 'Private! No Fishing Allowed'?"
Wilson: "I never read anything I see marked 'Private.'"

"When you reach your senior year you have senior better days."

Mr. Poindexter: "Does the moon affect the tide?"
Crawford: "No, only the untied."

Mayfield: "Let's go to the library."
Reba: "Sorry, I gotta study."

Mr. Ammons (on campus): "Can you tell me if this plant belongs to the arbutus family?"
Lena Allison: "No, sir, it belongs to the college."

Mr. Bird: "Ever had Sociology?"
Duckett: "No, sir, just measles and whooping cough."

"Do right and fear no man;
"Don't write and fear no woman!"

Ruth Ballance: "Are you a letter man?"
Hudson: "Naw; she might want me to, but I won't let-her."

"Your lips are like an old pair of pants; they need pressin'."

"Golf is like a love affair—
If you don't take it seriously
It's no fun;
if you do, it breaks your heart."

David H. (giving a lesson in driving: "This controls the brake. It is put on in case of emergency."
Molly: "I see. It's something like a negligee."

Dr. Wilkes: "I see you have a coat on your tongue."
Paul Lyday: "I've been feeling kinda choked up. Look down a little further and see if you can't see a pair of pants, too."

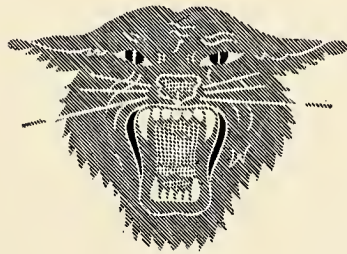

Mr. Seymour: "Turn to page 235, shut the window, stop rattling paper, turn your minds to the lesson, and don't ever think Citizenship is easy."

Jackson: "Do you room off campus?"
Mildred Painter: "Yes, but I get bored at class."

We wish to thank all those who have helped to finance the Catamount by advertising. Since our Annual is coming out earlier than usual this year, we think that you will be repaid to some extent. We shall urge the students to help those who have helped us.

We appreciate your advertising!
